PRESIDENT NOT TO BE HERE.

HE WILL RECEIVE ADMIRAL DEWEY AT WASHINGTON, AFTER THE NEW-YORK CELEBRATION.

The Executive Committee of the Dewey Celebration Committee late last evening gave out a letter from President McKinley, which was received earlier in the day. It read as follows:

I am in receipt of the invitation to participate in the naval parade and reception and military parade and review on Friday and Saturday, the 23th and 30th inst. in honor of Admiral Dewey and regret that I shall be unable to accept.

On the Monday following I shall have the very great pleasure of receiving him at the Nation's capital, to which he has expressed a desire to proceed at once upon the conclusion of your demonstration of greeting.

The accounts that have reached me from time to time of the splendid tribute arranged by the generous and hospitable people of your great city and State have deeply interested me, and the energy and enthusiasm with which the celebration was undertaken and has been

The sil important subject has been freely discussed for nearly a year, but nothing has been accomplished. All attempts on the part of the Board of Education to secure appropriations from the Common Council failed. That body always pleuded the vastness of city expenditures, the magnitude of the city's bonded indebtedness and lack of resources.

The School Board at last made an application for a peremptory with of mandamus compelling the Common Council to raise money for school purposes. Justice Werner of the Supreme Court to-day handed down a decision denying the application. The condition of the school accommodation is according to general opinion, deplorable. The reports of the principals show that many of the schools now that the average of daily attendance has been raised, have been turning away pupils by the lifties and hundreds, while others are crowded to their utimost capacity. In some schools half-day sessions have been ordered; in others the pupils are forced to remain away until makeshift annexes are provided. A resolution was also adopted permitting citizens to erect stands inside the stoop lines of their houses along the four of march during the Dewey celebration. Permission to erect such stands must first be secured from the proper authorities.

General permission for the placing of tracks on side streets, to be used as stands thring the military parade was granted individual permits must be asked from the Chief of Police. JUDGE SCHATZ, OF MOUNT VERNON, SAYS HE WILL ASK GOVERNOR ROOSEVELT TO INVESTIGATE IT

City Judge Adam E. Schatz, of Mount Vernon made the announcement yesterday that he intends to ask Governor Hossovelt to investigate the Ken-sico Farm School. The Judge's action is based on the statement of William Jackson, a ten-year-old colored boy, who was arrested as a runaway by the police and sent to that institution, where the managers were to have given him employment According to the boy's story, after a few days he According to the boy's story, after a few days he obtained a ticket back to New-York, and reached the city without a cent. Several nights, the boy alleges, he was forced to sleep on doorsteps. When the Judge heard the boy's story he secured employment for him and then decided to begin an investigation. He says that if the school has been sending children home without a cent, although they have been committed by a charity organization, it is a wrong which should be quickly corrected.

Pretoria, Sept. 12.-The reading in the Volksraad to-day of the reply of the British Secretary of State for the Colonies, Joseph Chamberlain, to the latest Transvaal note, was greeted with silence, except for some interruptions from Mr. Tosen and other ultra-Conservative members. There is no indication as yet of the views held regarding it in official circles.

The Volksrand has instructed the Government to dismiss Mr. Dejonge, Secretary of Education, for writing a letter to the newspapers accusing the ministers of the United Dutch English education in the State schools. # The Wanamater Store The School of Style First Days of the Fall Term

THIS store does not merely sell goods; -it teaches. It is a College of Fashion, and the leader of its kind in America. The public recognition of this fact is sufficiently established to clear this statement from all trace of hyperbole. The Millinery Exhibit on which the doors opened yesterday is one branch of the Fall teaching, and has been appreciated as such by the public generally. We promised the largest and finest display of Fall Hats ever seen in any store on this side of the Atlantic. It is here.

The New Things in Laces and Neckwear form another object lesson in the course of Styles Worth Knowing. An important lesson, for this is to be a lace season. How extensively so, you can learn from this display. All that lace can enter upon in apparel, from the simplest scarf to the entire Princess gown, is shown in hundreds upon hundreds of forms. Note how the butterflies flit through them. The butterfly is characteristic of this Fall's designing. Paris styles, plus all that London can send, plus all that New York knows.

The Fall Costumes, Suits and Wraps

A Wanamaker collection, therefore unequalled in extent, unapproached in variety, unquestionable in styles. Paris, London and New York productions. Wanamaker selections. Prices from $10 to $225. The suits at all prices show more elegance and finish in better materials than any ever heretofore shown here or elsewhere. This is especially remarkable in the grades priced from $10 to $50.

The Fall Dress Goods and Silks Loom-marvels from Southern France; choicest specimens of Parisian design; sturdy woolens of Germany and Northern England;

American efforts and reproductions, honest in their inexpensiveness; -a fabric collection that can neither be catalogued nor summarized except by the word Completion. If choice that is limited only by the limits of fabric manufacture, and a desirable policy of exclusiveness in pattern pleases you. then you will be pleased in choosing here.
